Wednesday Prayer and Share Topic:
Gratitude as a Verb - "Gratituding"
September 10, 2025

Questions to consider:

- What would it look like if we lived each moment with gratitude as a verb?
- How often in your experience is gratitude tied to the hardest things?
- What is the relationship between healing and gratitude?
- What can we do when gratitude is difficult to authentically find?
- Please share incidents of healing, insight, and inspiration.
